
Joint account opening / Nomination facility for “QUEER” partners

Dear All,

As per RBI directive our bank also allows joint bank account opening and nomination facility to persons in a QUEER relationship (referred to as QUEER partners).

Legal Definition : “Queer Relationship” refers to persons included in “LGBTIQ” (“Lesbian”, “Gay”, “Bisexual”, “Transgender” ,“Intersex” ,“Queer”) category.

Services Offered	Guidelines
• There is no restriction on the banking services which can be offered to the customer who fall into above category • Partners in a queer relationship can open a joint bank account with their partner • Partners in a queer relation can name their partner as a nominee in their bank account	• Conditions applicable to regular joint holder account opening, is applicable to these customers. No need of any additional declaration • No additional due diligence required apart from the regular laid down guidelines

Kindly cascade the information to all the staff members and ensure that we are not denying the service to the customers.